SHOWERS PROBABLE TO-DAY.

Rain and Lower Temperature in Central and Southern Indiana.

WASHINGTON, July 11 .- Forecast for Sunday and Monday:

Indiana and Illinois-Fair in north; showers and cooler in south and central porlight variable winds. Ohio-Fair in north; showers and slightly cooler in south portion on Sunday. Monday fair; light to fresh west winds. Kentucky-Showers on Sunday. Monday fair and warmer. Lower Michigan and Wisconsin-Fair on Sunday and Monday; light to fresh southwest to west winds. Iowa-Fair on Sunday, except probably showers in south portion; Monday fair and

Minnesota-Fair on Sunday and Monday; warmer on Monday; light variable winds. North Dakota-Fair and warmer on Sunday: Monday fair. South Dakota-Fair on Sunday, warmer except in central portion; Monday fair. ebraska-Fair on Sunday and Monday. Kansas-Showers on Sunday; warmer in northeast portion. Monday fair.

Bar, Tem. R.H. Wind. Wenther, Prec. 7a. m. 29.95 74 76 N'west-7. (7p. m. 29.81 86 56 N'west-5. (Maximum temperature, 92; minimum tempera-

Comparative statement of the mean temperature and total precipitation on July 11: W. T. BLYTHE, Section Director.

	Yesterday's	Tem	erat	ures.
	Stations.		. m.	Max.
	Abilene, Tex		79	34	7
1	Amarillo, Tex		74	92
-	Atlanta, Ga		70	84
	Bismarck, N. D		59	-
	Cairo, Ili		74	74
	Calgary, Alberta	*		94
- 3	Chattanooga, Tenn		20	74 86
	Cheyenne, Wyo		54	76
	Chicago, Ill		69	76
	Cincinnati, O		74	94
	Cleveland, O		70	80
	Columbus, O		70
	Concordia, Kan		74	90
	Davenport, Ia		69	84
13	Denver, Col		50	86
В	Dodge City, Kan		410	84
	Dubuque, In		20	92
ĸ	Duluth, Minn	*	69	90
-	El Paso, Tex	*	74	19
	Galveston, Tex		19	98
-	Grand Junction, Col	*	80	86
	Grand Davids Mich	*	60	96
	Grand Rapids, Mich		02	82
	Havre, Mont			82
	Helena, Mont			80
- 15	Jacksonville, Fla		70	82
	Fanana Citas Ma	*	14	90
- 73	Kansas City, Mo	*	70	90
	Lander, Wyo Little Rock, Ark	*	76	82
	Louisville, Ky		70	88
- 3	Marguette Mich		18	- 94
- 3	Marquette, Mich Memphis, Tenn		74	76
L A	Modena, Utah		10	90
1 3	Montgomery, Ala	*	20	92
13	Nashville, Tenn		74	86
-	Name Orlanda To	*	14	92
-	New Orleans, La		19	78
	New York, N. Y Norfolk, Va	*	70	88
ĸ	North Platte, Neb		00	92
3	Oklahoma, O. T	*	20	92
	Omaha, Neb	*	70	94
æ	Palestine, Tex	*	10	86
×	Parkershore W Ve	*	70	90
8	Parkersburg, W. Va Philadelphia, Pa	*	70	90
6	Pittsburg, Pa		70	94
- 6	Pueblo, Col		10	90
	htt' Appelle Agein		49	88
ĸ	Rapid City, S. D		24	€8
ĸ	St. Louis, Mo	*	78	82
æ	t. Paul, Minn		69	. 94
-	Salt Lake City Link	*	69	90
1	Salt Lake City, Utah ,	*	79	92
	Santa Fe. N. M		59	90
	Shreveport, La			84
-	pringfield, Ill	*	68	94
-	springfield, Mo	*	72	92
1	Calentine Neb	*	20	92
	Valentine, Neb		72	80
1	Wichita, Kan	*	74	94

HIGH GRANITE COLUMNS.

One Is Six Feet in Diameter and Thirty-Six Feet Long.

NEW YORK, July 11 .- Two of the eight granite columns that are to form an arc about the altar of the Cathedral of St. John the Divine have arrived here. They are the largest, aside from the Central Park ob- to forego its custom, dating back many not live more than a few days longer. elisk, in this country. They were brought years, of holding no diplomatic intercourse on a specially-constructed lighter, with mas, on a specially-constructed lighter, with massive derricks and very powerful, from Rockland. Me., where the huge pieces of granite were quarried and polished. Each column is made of two pleces. The lower is six feet in diameter, thirty-six feet long and weighs eighty-five tons. The upper is eighteen feet long, six feet in diameter and weighs forty tons.

MOVEMENTS OF STEAMERS.

NEW YORK, July 11 .- Arrived: La Lorraine, from Havre; Philadelphia, from Southampton. Off Sandy Hook: Etruria, Sailed: Pennsylvania for Hamburg, via Cherbourg; Minnehaha for London; Zeeland for Antwerp; Kalser Wilhelm der Grosse for Bremen via Plymouth and Cherbourg; Astoria for Glasgow; Lucania for

QUEENSTOWN, July 11 .- Arrived: Umbria, from New York for Liverpool and pro-ceeded. Sailed: Celtic, from Liverpool for PLYMOUTH, July 11 .- Arrived: Barbarossa, from New York for Cherbourg and Bremen and proceeded LIVERPOOL, July 11.-Arrived: Armenlan, from New York. Sailed: Campania for New York. BREMEN, July 11 .- Sailed: Friederich der Grosse for New York, via Cherbourg. CHERBOURG, July 11.-Sailed: St. Paul, from Southampton for New York.

COPENHAGEN, July 11 .- Sailed: Hecla ANTWERP, July 11 .- Sailed: Vaderland

This Week

We are selling regular $1,50 and $2.00 Negligee Shirts, all new patterns, with plain or plaited bosoms, at-

$1.17

STRAW HATS

$2.00

our store.

Danbury Hat Co. No. 8 East Washington St.

HORRIBLE STORY OF CRIMINAL AS-SAULT AND LYNCHING.

leged to Have Been Cruelly Tortured and Burned.

LITERALLY FLAYED

PINS, TACKS AND KNIVES STUCK INTO HIS BODY,

His Tongue Cut Out, Skin Slashed Off and Distributed, and the Bleeding Form Burned.

WHEELING, W. Va., July 11.-A special to the Register from Bluefield says: The full details of one of the blackest crimes State has just reached this city. The little town of Devon, Mingo county, was the tions on Sunday. Monday fair, warmer; scene yesterday of the assaulting of a fourteen-year-old girl by a negre, followed by his subsequent lynching by an enraged mob numbering over 200 men. The little girl was caught a short distance from her home by the negro and carried to a neighboring wood, where her body was tied to a tree, bound and gagged. Her absence was noticed by the neighbors, who immediately formed themselves into a searching party. She was found in an almost dying condition, but was able to tell to the searchers the Wild were the cries for vengeance when the little girl's story was heard, but after | that the local Spiritualists have been in | a consultation it was decided to lay in council, have implored spirits to come to reached Mgr. Falconio, the papal del gate, wait for the negro. In a short time he ap- their aid and were replied to by the shade this evening at 6:44 o'clock. A cable dispeared and was just renewing his assault of Pope Pius IX, which declared that Leo patch from Cardinal Rampolla, dated Rome, on the helpless child when the entire mob XIII has a tumor in the pleura of a papil- to-day, says: "Condition of the Holy Faof concealed searchers emerged and ran lose nature and the cyst for which the ther somewhat better." towards him. He would have been torn Pope was operated on some years ago. limb from limb on the spot but the crime demanded a more cruel death. Cool heads | Pontiff the Neapolitans have recourse to kept the enraged mob back and the negro | their most sacred and seldom-used method was dragged to the village common and bound to a tree.

Again the mob gave vent to their wild desire for revenge, and it was by the greatest efforts of the leaders that they were kept back. The clothing of the negro was torn from his body and pins, tacks, penkuives and every conceivable weapon of torture was stuck into the skin of the negro as he struggled and vainly pleaded for his life. He was allowed to suffer a hundred deaths with his body bleeding in a thousand places. The almost lifeless form of his little victim was then placed before the glaring eyes of the tortured man, while willing hands cut the tongue from his swollen mouth. His cries became incoherent, and before the enraged citizens could be checked the skin was literally cut from his body and distributed among the villagers. He died with his eyes on the little girl whose life he had ruined. His heart was then cut out with jack knives, his toes and fingers choped off and carried away as mementoes. His bloody and mangled form was then soaked with kerosene and ignited.

ROME IS PUZZLED.

(CONCLUDED FROM FIRST PAGE.) 36.9 centigrade. His mental condition was

This afternoon the extraordinary none-genarian received in audience three cardinals, one belonging to the Order of Bish- friendship for him. ops, one to the Order of Priests and one to the Order of Deacons, in the private chapel of the pontifical apartments.

PRAYERS FOR THE POPE. A Te Dunm for the Pope's recovery was ceasingly until Monday night. Prayers will be said and chanted in Pope Leo's behalf and the expenses of the services will be borne by the ancient body known as the "Pope's familiars."

A dispatch from Turin announces that even in that cradle of the House of Savoy, which wrested temporal power from the Vatican the people are dominated by anxiety regarding the Pope's condition. The inhabitants to-day formed an imposing procession headed by priests and slowly marched through the streets, chanting intercessions. At the Church of the Consolate the archbishop of Turin, Cardinal Richelmy, himself a possible successor of the Pope, addressed the multitude and pronounced a eulogium on Leo XIII, declaring that his death would be an irreparable loss cabled direct to Cardinal Rampolla, as secretary of state, saying a cable message had been received from the government of New Zealand inquiring about the Pope's health and requesting an answer in order to transmit it to Premier Seddon. Considerable significance was attached at the Vatican to this incident.

LEO TAKES ADVICE. Dr. Lapponi paid a visit to the Pope at 7 o'clock this morning. The Pontiff at first was not in a good humor, saying he could not stand remaining so many hours in bed, never having been accustomed to lie down from Liverpool; Cedric, from Liverpool. for longer than four or five hours at a time. The doctor, however, succeeded, most patiently, in convincing him that when persons are ill it is necessary to change their habits, even if they seem to be not so comfortable.

> "But is it really necessary?" asked the Dr. Lapponi replied: "It is not indispensable, but it will certainly assist our efforts. "Then," concluded the Pope, "I must do

> After this the Pontiff's face again assumed its habitual bright, benevolent expression, and he smiled as he had done in

This conversation with the doctor succeeded in so tranquilizing the Pope that he refused to see Monsignor Pifferi, his confessor. Having expressed a desire to hear mass the Pontiff's secretary, Mgr. Angeli celebrated it in the chapel adjacent to the ickroom, leaving the door open so that the Pope could follow the service. Shortly afterwards Dr. Mazzoni visited the Pope and confirmed the relatively good condition of the patient as observed by Dr. Laponni, with the exception of the working of the kidneys, which continue to cause apprehension, as they are not functioning well. The amelioration in his Holiness's breathing will continue until liquid regathers in the pleura. The Pope's pulse is better and the movements of the bowels are regular. On leaving the sickroom Dr. Mazzoni was surrounded by the church dignitaries, who were waiting in the ante-chamber, anxious for news. A picket of the noble guard in the gorgeous uniforms stood silently among the somberly-gowned prelates, giving a pleasing touch of color to the scene. Cardinal Rampolla waited for Dr. Mazzoni in the throneroom, and when the physician ap-

MAZZONI COMPLAINS. After complying Dr. Mazzoni complained to the cardinal of the gossip and criticisms concerning the doctors' diagnosis of the illness of the Pope and the treatment being administered. In reply Cardinal Rampolla said he had complete and unbounded confidence in the physicians. "This is why," the cardinal added, "I never interfered in any way with the consultations. On leaving the Vatican Dr. Mazzoni was stopped and asked for the news by Car-dinal Cavagnis, who, with a number of other cardinals, called early at the Vatican for information while other cardinals.

pressed a desire to see the Pontiff, he said: the same time, it must be admitted that his will allow me to do so I shall be very hap-Later in the day the Pope received the two countesses, his nieces, and after a short chat with them asked about Mon-signer Voipini, saying: "What is the matter? Why does he not come to see me?' It was explained to the Pontiff that the excitement of the past few days had overcome M. Volpini, who was quite unwell. But the Pope was not informed that Mon-signor Volpini was dead. It was rumored this afternoon that the Pope was suffering from inflammation of the kidneys. A representative of the Associated Press went to see Prof. Mazzoni in order to obtain a direct confirmation or denial. The professor received the representative in his study, where the most prominent object is a portrait of Pope Leo. When in-formed of the reason for the visit the professor said immediately: "I know all about it. The news was spread by an American doctor in Rome. I authorize you to deny it emphatically, and to make the following statement: The disease of the inflammation of the kidneys, the latter must be diseased, while those of the Pontiff are healthy. His urine is scarce, but it is normal, chemically and microscopically It is reported that in the last medical bulletin regarding the Pope's condition the doctor omitted to state that the action of says. the kidneys had improved, wishing before making this announcement to have more positive evidence of the fact. In the papal antechamber Dr. Lapponi, speaking to the Spanish ambassador, who had visited the Vatican to inquire regarding the condition of the Pontiff, said: "This is the first night when it can be said that there is real amelioration of the patient's heart trouble that has ever blotted the history of the That organ is getting stronger and the possibility of Pope Leo's recovery is not ex-cluded." To-day he took his midday nourishment of sweetbreads, chicken, jelly and a small glass of Marsala wine. In one of his waking spells to-night the

TUMOR IN THE PLEURA.

Pontiff said that in the morning he would

What the Shade of Pope Pius IX Is Alleged to Have Told Spiritualists. ROME, July 11 .- The Romans are determined by all means to ascertain everything possible about the Pope. It is announced

In view of the serious condition of the of rendering him assistance. St. Gennaro is their greatest saint, and his mitre is preserved at Naples. It is said to work miracles. The aristocracy and clergy of Naples begged the archbishop to send the mitre to Rome, and he allowed it to leave the city for the first time in many years. The precious relic was intrusted to Mgr. Prince Caracciolo, who arrived with it safely in Rome to-day. At the Vatican the mitre was received by Cardinal Rampolla and Mgr. Bisleti, who, with great ceremony, thanked the Neapolitans for their plety and self-sacrifice in allowing the mitre to come here. After the cardinal had invited Mgr. Caracciolo to remain for some days in this city, the sacred relic was deposited in the

INTERVIEW WITH SATOLLI.

Former American Apostolic Delegate Tells of the Pope's Wishes.

ROME, July 11.-Cardinal Satolli received a representative of the Associated Press at the palace of Ste John Lateran this afternoon, and in the course of an interesting conversation confirmed the report that the Pope had recently expressed a wish to be buried in the magnificent Lateran basilica, which has been under Cardinal Satolli's charge since his return from the United States. In the library where the cardinal received the reports were displayed a number of souvenirs of his stay in America and also some rare religious works of art, personal mementoes of Pope Leo's cordial

"I saw his Holiness only last night," said the cardinal, and he was very, very weak. He has begun to lose the power of enunciating his words clearly, and his tongue seems commenced to-day and will continue un- to have some strange impediment, but his mind continues to be perfectly clear, and he does not appear to have any realization of the gravity of his case. For instance, 'the Congregation of Rites, over which the Pope presides, had fixed a time for considering the question of the canonization of Joan of Arc. The Holy Father kept this in mind, and, notwithstanding his condition, sent for Amici, his secretary, and directed him to have the meeting temporarily put off, saying he greatly regretted not being able to meet the congregation at the appointed time next Tuesday, but he would certainly be able to meet the congregation soon." Cardinal Satolli cited this incident as showing that the Pontiff regarded his illness as one from which he would recover, at least sufficiently to resume the direction of important questions of church policy. But, after mentioning the matter, the cardinal shook his head mournfully, and said he felt The British government has been obliged fully satisfied that the Holy Father could "the Pontiff's outward evidence of strength is deceptive and is in reality due to the unremitting use of powerful stimulants, chiefly caffeine; indeed, the constant administration of stimulants practically sustains his strength and life at this time, and immediately after the effect of the stimulants passes away he relapses into extreme weakness. This is due, in part, to the peculiar sensitiveness of the Holy Father's > artificial stimulants and at the same time mmediately collapse after these stimulants are withdrawn.' The cardinal was asked whether the Pope made a testamentary request regarding his final resting place, and he replied: "Yes; but that was some time ago. A year ago, when he made his will, he expressed the desire that after he had rested the usual period of one year at St. Peter's that his final resting place should be here at the Church of St. John Lateran. Then I saw the Holy Father a short time before this sickness and he again brought the matter up, saying with earnestness that he wished to repose here, but I endeavored to dismiss such gloomy thoughts from his mind by telling nerves, which almost instantly respond to him there was no need of considering such a thing at that time." Cardinal Satolli then spoke of his stay in America and his black eyes snapped with real satisfaction as he referred to the slight coolness which occurred in certain quarters when he first arrived in the United States, and how, later, his coming was more generally and agreeably welcomed. He spoke of the various grave church questions which he had been called upon to solve and seemed gratified with the results achieved. "I always like to see Americans," he remarked, "and when they are good enough they want me to come again to America I assure them that it is my earnest hope to do so, but it is very difficult for us. with our duties in Rome, to take such trips. I sincerely hope to see America

KING EMMANUEL'S PLANS.

He Will Return to Rome in the Event the Pope Dies.

PARIS, July 12 .- The Rome correspondent of the Paris edition of the New York Herald says he is able to say that in the event of the Pope's death King Emmanuel will immediately leave Racconigi for Rome, peared the papal secretary of state requested him to make a detailed report of tion of a successor to the Pontiff, but his Majesty will not attempt to open official relations with the Vatican.

The correspondent adds that a prominent prelate, on being asked by him concerning the possibility of the election of Cardinal Gibbons to the pontificate, replied: "Cardinal Gibbons not only represents more Catholics than any other cardinal, but all the members of the Sacred College recognize his great personal authority. He does not represent, like Vannutelli, opposition to Rampolia's francophile policy; he does not represent, like Oreglia, reaction against the atrigues now in progress at the Vatican; other cardinals, called early at the Vatican for information while other cardinals sent their secretaries for the latest reports.

The wives of Count Canali and Count Moroni, nieces of the Pope, having ex-

MAZZONI REBUFFS RAMPOLLA.

Declines to Make Political Bulletins on the Pope's Condition.

PARIS, July 12 .- The Eclair's Rome correspondent telegraphs that at the moment the Pope's physicians were preparing a Tells bulletin Cardinal Rampolla sought the doctors and said: "Since the Pope is better, you must state the fact very clearly." Dr. Lapponi replied that it should be as his Eminence wished, but Dr. Mazzoni declared that he would receive orders from Pope is pneumonia, followed by pleurisy, illness secret for ten days. Combinations or, as it is commonly called, pleuro pneu- are not my concern. I will tell the truth monia. To have nephritis, which means or go." The cardinal was obliged to yield. The Paris Nouvelles publishes a dispatch from Rome saying that Cardinal Rampolla has finally ended the anarchy which had sickness began. The cardinal's words, "While the Pope lives I am master here," have caused much comment, the dispatch

Tribute to Cardinal Gibbons.

ROME, July 11 .- The newspaper Italia, reone of the most remarkable personalities in | Baptist Church of Gloversville, N. Y. the approaching conclave. The paper adds that if the successor to the pontificate were to be chosen by popular vote the United States, with its great number of Catholic residents, would wield an influence in the election that would not be inferior to that of any other power; but the great American like to see one of his private secretaries, either Mgr. Angelo or Mgr. Marzollini, as by a single cardinal, while Spain, with less than half the number of Catholics that are he desired to make some changes in his will regarding his bequests to certain members in the United States, has four cardinals. The Italia article concludes: "Perhaps because he is alone, Cardinal Gibbons will represent a moral force of the first rank. He is the only cardinal absolutely free and independent of all the petty intrigues and machinations which to some extent preceds a conclave."

Mgr. Falcont's Advices.

news regarding the Pope's condition

The hour of filing the dispatch is not given, but Mgr. Falconio says that in his opinion the fact that this second dispatch has been sent to-day shows there has been some decided improvement in his Holiness's condition, as the delegation has received heretofore only one message a day and that in the early morning.

COTTON SPEAKS AGAIN.

Tells Britons He Brought a Message of Love from America.

PORTSMOUTH, Eng., July 11 .- Rear Admiral Cotton, commanding the American squadron now visiting British waters, and his officers were given a banquet this evening in the town hall by the mayor. Responding to a toast to the United States navy Admiral Cotton said that he and his colleagues brought a message of peace and love from the President and people of the United States to the sovereign and the people of England.

Vice Admiral Lord Charles Beresford, who was among those who spoke, said that such a demonstration, the visit of the American squadron and its reception brought together the two nations most instrumental in maintaining the peace of the world. Capt. Hedworth Lambton, naval aid-decamp to the King, General Montgomery Messrs. Majendie and Lucas, members of the House of Commons for Portsmouth, and many naval and military officers were present. H. Clay Evans, United States consul general at London, replied to the toast to President Roosevelt in a speech in which he traced the President's career. A cable was dispatched to President Roosevelt on behalf of all those present, thank-ing him for the presence of the squadron in British waters.

President Thanks King Edward. WASHINGTON, July 11. - President Roosevelt to-night sent the following cable in response to the message sent the President by King Edward during the dinner to American naval officers at Buckingham Palace on Thursday night last: "I thank your Majesty most cordially for your kind message and sincerely and gratefully appreciate the courtesies which the officers of our navy have received at the hands of your Majesty and the English peo-

TEA EXPERT MURDERED.

Charles W. Roxbury Probably Sing-

ged on the Head and Robbed. NEW YORK, July 11 .- The police are investigating the death of Charles W. Roxbury, a tea expert. Roxbury died of a fracture of the skull and other injuries, and the belief is that he was held up and Fatalities at Jeffersonville Due to "Although his mind is perfectly clear and robbed. Although he arrived home soon after 10 o'clock last night in a battered condition and lingered until early to-day, he were, or where he had been attacked. Ar examination of Mr. Roxbury's clothing showed that his watch was gone and the chain snapped off in the middle. The watch pocket was also torn. A big wallet in which he was known to have carried large amount of money contained only 9 cents. The straw hat he wore was smashed at the front, showing where he had received the blow that fractured his skull The police traced blood spots on Jerome avenue and thence on River avenue to Onehundred-and-sixty-second street, but have found no other clew. Residents of the vicinity complain that thugs infest the neighborhood and that there is inadequate police protection.

Obituary.

CLAYTON, N. Y., July 11.-The mother of H. Clay Pierce, chairman of the Mexican Central Railway, is dead at St. Lawrence, after a long illness. Mr. Pierce was at her pedside, having come by special train. NEW YORK, July 11 .- Charles C. Martin. superintendent of the engineering depart-ment of the Brooklyn Bridge, died suddento-day of apoplexy at Far Rockaway. He was seventy-two years old.

CHICAGO, July 11.—Word was received here to-day of the death at Battle Creek, Mich., of John Mayo Palmer, former corporation counsel of Chicago and a son of the late Gen. John M. Palmer.

Floods in Austria.

TROPPAU, Austrian Silesia, July 11 .- The greatest floods ever known in this district have occurred. Numerous villages have been inundated, causing the collapse of many houses. Railway communication has been interrupted and a large number of bridges have been destroyed.

Senators in Goldland.

DAWSON CHTY, Yukon, July 11 .- The United States senatorial party which is bound to Alaska stayed over at Dawson City to see the gold creeks and farmers. Senators Dillingham, Nelson, Patterson and Burnham will go down the Yukon on Illinois National Guard in Camp. SPRINGFIELD, Ill., July 11.—The annual encampment of the Illinois National Guard began here to-day with 650 officers and men in camp. The First Regiment of Chicago was the first to arrive and Colonel Sanborn assumed command of the post.

Second Degree Murder.

CINCINNATI, July 11.-The jury in the ase of Fred Geiger, charged with the murder of his wife, to-day rendered a verdict of second degree murder. The verdict means life imprisoment with a possibility of

Charged with Robbing Parents. GRAND FORKS, N. D., July 11.-You oseph Greenwood is in jail charged with bibling his parents of $2,830, concealed by

ILLINOIS PREACHER WOULD HIDE "UNCLE TOM'S CABIN."

"We Have Had Enough" of Harriet Beecher Stowe's Famous Story.

ATLANTA, Ga., July 11.-The third day nobody, adding: "When I came you did of the international convention of the Bapnot want bulletins; now u want me to draw up political ones. I fill make them only purely medical. Since I came I have been attacked all around, and you know churches of the city, all of which were well you called me after keeping the Pontiff's attended. The morning session of the convention proper in the auditorium at Exposition Park was largely taken up by the interesting exercises of the salutation of the flags conducted by Rev. Dr. Walter reigned at the Vatican since the Pope's Calley, of Chicago. This ceremony consisted of a long procession of banners, borne by young women delegates representing all sections of the country.

The afternoon session was devoted to the junior branch of the society, the exercises being upon the general subject, "The Light ferring to the journey to Rome of Cardinal of the World." The principal address was Gibbons, says the cardinal will certainly be by Rev. A. W. Bourne, pastor of the First

The convention adopted resolutions recommending renewed effort for the future; indorsing all efforts for the promotion of missionary intelligence and condemning in emphatic terms the liquor traffic. Sympathy was expressed for the Baptists of Nation will be represented in the conclave Great Britain "in their great struggle to maintain the historical position regarding the relation of church and state and the preservation of soul liberty."

One of the features was the speech of Samuel D. McKenney, of Alton, Ill., responding for his State. Mr. McKenney spoke for a union of North and South and declared that it was "time for Northern peo-ple to stop putting 'Uncle Tom's Cabin' before the eyes of the children. We have had enough of 'Uncle Tom's Cabin,' " de-WASHINGTON, July 11 .- Encouraging | clared Mr. McKenney, "and the people of the North should not give it to their children to read, engendering feeling and bitterness. We need to cease giving ear to the prattle against the South and to unite in the name of Lincoln and Lee, of

MURDERS OF THE SUN.

(CONCLUDED FROM FIRST PAGE.) n the temperature in the evening. When the thunderstorm broke the thermometer stood at 87 degrees, but fell to 68 within as

The number of deaths attributed to the heat recorded during the day was seventeen. Prostrations to the number of thirteen occurred Thousands of persons slept peacefully in the parks of Greater New York during the night, despite the heat, secure in the knowledge that no policemen would awake them and drive them back to their ovenlike tenements, lodging houses and thicklypeopled apartment buildings. One of the most rigid police rules was ordered sus-pended and the officers in all boroughs were notified to see that no orderly persons availing himself of the privilege were disturbed. The suspension of the rule will continue during the heated term. It had become almost imperative that some such relief measure should be taken by the city officials. Men and boys had been sleeping for two nights on benches and lawns all over the city in violation of the police reguladid not have the heart to disturb them.

Oil Tank Struck by Lightning. CHESTER, Pa., July 11.-During a severe electrical storm this evening lightning struck the United Oil Company's thirtythousand-gallon tank at Marcus Hook, near here, causing an explosion which shattered the roof of the tank into hundreds of pieces. The force of the explosion shook the houses in Marcus Hook and vicinity, and did damage estimated at $50,000. The oil tank caught fire and is still burning, the skies being illuminated for miles.

Five Deaths, Many Prostrations.

PHILADELPHIA, July 11.-Five deaths and more than a score of prostrations were to-day's heat record in Philadelphia. The maximum temperature was 94 degrees. During an electrical storm, which continued for nearly an hour, the thermometer dropped to 71, but rose again to-night to 77. The humidity registered 83 per cent.

Relief at St. Louis.

ST. LOUIS, July 11.-The highest temperature recorded to-day was 94 degrees. Relief came when a heavy thunderstorm swept over in the afternoon, dropping the mercury to 82 degrees. Three heat prostra-tions were reported to-day.

Ten Deaths in Paris.

PARIS, July 11 .- The heat to-day was intense, the thermometer registering 91 degrees. Ten persons died as the result of the Extreme Heat.

TWO DEATHS RESULTED.

Special to the Indianapolis' Journal. JEFFERSONVILLE, Ind., July 11 .- The ntense heat was to-day responsible for two deaths, making three that have occurred from this cause in two days. Charles Simms, a colored employe of works, went home from work, dropped down on a bed and expired. Mrs. Emma Davis, aged eighty-three years, was overcome by heat prostration yesterday and died to-day. A severe electrical storm passed over the city at 3 o'clock this afternoon and the lightning played many freaks. A flash of lightning struck a building opposite the postoffice and started a blaze but it was extinguished before it reached a dangerous point. Telephone and telegraph wires all over the city were disabled. A horse that was standing on Spring street was thrown off its feet by the force of Heat Dispelled by Storm.

Special to the Indianapolis Journal. MADISON, Ind., July 11.-The intense heat-the mercury standing near 100-was dispelled by a sudden rainstorm, accompanied by thunder and lightning, this afternoon. Trinity Church was struck by an electric bolt in the identical place lightning struck one year ago. Twelve feet of the washboard was shattered, the floor loosened and chairs promiscuously scattered, but the damage was not great and Dementia Due to Lightning.

no one was hurt.

Special to the Indianapolis Journal. TERRE HAUTE, Ind., July 11 .- Walter Sexton, a youth reported as being killed by lightning near Vincennes, is not dead but is wandering about Terre Haute demented from the shock. His have been told that he was seen in this city and the police are making a search for him. He was working on a farm near Vincennes and after he was thought to have sufficiently recovered from the shock was put on a train for this city.

Lightning Disturbed a Funeral. special to the Indianapolis Journal.

NEW CASTLE, Ind., July 11.-As funeral of Mrs. Tom Bailey, who lived with her father west of here, was progressing Friday afternoon a stroke of lightning struck a defective telephone wire and the current running into the house, tore loose considerable plaster, threw a ball of fire on the bed and so shocked the inmates of the house that they were dazed for a short time and some of the women fainted.

Horses Killed by Lightning. Special to the Indianapolis Journal.

COLUMBUS, Ind., July 11.-During storm yesterday afternoon lightning killed four horses belonging to Albert H. Morris and John E. Parker, near Azalla, this con

HEADQUARTERS

For Panama and White Felt Hats. SUMMER TOGGERY

The finest line in the city to select from, all SMART and EXCLUSIVE. Shirts, Underwear, Hosiery, Etc.

New Ideas in Neckwear, Stocks and Collars. SELLING AGENTS for the celebrated Original Linen, Liste and Cotton mesh Underwear, the coolest and most comfortable underwear made-500 up to $2.00

Panama A Automobile and Outing Caps of all kinds, $1.00 to $3.00

A fine assortment of BATHING SUITS

82 to $10.

Summer Clothing The latest and smartest

Automobile and Traveling Dusters . . $5.00 Pure linen, elegantly made. English Rain Coats, $18 to $30

Traveling Bags and Suit Cases

GERRITT A. ARCHIBALD @ CO. 38 East Washington Street.

FAIR BANK MONDAY, JULY 13, ONE WEEK ONLY.

LOUISE BREHANY, Soprano, GEO. AUSTIN MOORE, Character Vocalist AND OSTENDORF'S FAIR BANK CONCERT BAND.

86 Musicians, 10 Soloists. Reserved seats 10c extra. Tickets can be Change of programme nightly. Matinee every Saturday afternoon. reserved by 'phones, New 6233, Old 481 white.

No extra charge for reserved seats at mailnee ADMISSION 25 CENTS.

FOR LESE MAJESTY.

King George of Saxony Demands

Penishment of an Editor. BERLIN, July 11 .- King George of Saxony has personally demanded the punishment of a newspaper editor for lese majeste. Some time ago the Dresdener Rundschau, a weekly publication, printed an article concerning a petition sent by a needy widow to the King's daughter, Princess Mathilde, in reply to which the princess sent her "only 3 marks for five starving children." Another article in the same paper discussed the affairs of the crown princess in the form of a fable, whereupon followed the confiscation of the issue and the arrest of the editor. The proprietor of the paper, advised by Berlin lawyers that the Saxon authorities had no right to take such action, decided to place the whole matter before the King. In his representations to his Majesty he called attention to the view of the Berlin lawyers and also stated that the existence of the entire family of the editor depended on his Majesty's decision. The editor, he said, had been bound to exclude all ibelous or objectionable matter from the paper and he would have been dismissed except for the fact that his discharge would have deprived his family, including his father, who was suffering from tuberculosis, of support. In view of all these circumstances the proprietor of the Rund-schau asked his Majesty to be lenient. To this the minister of law replied on June 29 that his Majesty has decided that the author of the articles should be prosecuted

KENTUCKY REPUBLICANS.

Belknap Said to Lead in Primaries

for Gubernatorial Nomination. LOUISVILLE, Ky., July 11.-Returns from nearly all of the Republican county conventions held throughout Kentucky point to the nomination of Morris B. Bel-tate convention to be held in Louisville. FRANKFORT, Ky., July 11.-Information received to-night at the headquarters of Attorney General Pratt, one of the candidates for the Republican gubernatorial nomination, is that he to-day received 300 instructed votes of the 2,200 delegates seected in county conventions. Further information is that 800 delegate votes are uninstructed and that Col. Morris Belknap and A. E. Willson, the Louisville candidates, divide the rest, Belknap leading. There is much talk here of Appellate Judge A. R. Burnham being taken up as a dark horse because of the feeling between the announced candidates engendered by today's county conventions.

INDIANS GETTING DIVORCES. The Red Men Slowly Learning the Customs of the Whites.

Washington Star. "The Indians have discovered the beaules of the Dakota divorce laws, and are taking advantage of them." said Gen. Andrew A. Burt. "At the present rate of increase the Indian divorce mill of South Dakota in five years will become more expensive than the ready-made divorce factory for | The Spectator. Easterners. While an Indian divorce was an unheard thing a decade ago, sixteen petitions for legal separation have been filed at Oacoma during the last year by fullblooded Sieux bucks or squaws. Divorces have come to the Indians as one of the heritages of civilization. The Indian officials have been trying for twenty years to induce the Indian to be married according to the white man's "Now they have almost succeeded. But the same law has taught them the interest- earthly and feared nothing earthly; they ing fact that they can change wives or husbands. They fall to understand that the di- fears, distracted by no cares; they lived vorce law is anything but a means to obtain the luxury of an unlimited number of marriages. Many bucks and squaws who know in the fastnesses of the Italian hills, singnot a word of English and bear no mark of | ing French hymns among the highway robcivilization except that of clothes come to the attorney's offices and ask for divorces, makes a strange picture. He knew French when they have no reason but a desire to badly, but it seemed to him the language form a new marriage. They point to other Indians who have had many wives, and ask why they cannot when the law provides that way reservations and cut off from their native wild life their respect for their own social laws dwindled. It was not long before many were living in utter disregard of the family obligations. Bucks deserted squaws and squaws took on new husbands without any formality and without any reason except their whims. Bigamy was erased from the missionaries demanded that the Indians be Now that they have found out about the divorces they have returned to their old free life through the divorce avenue.

mixture of civilized methods and tribal

TABLE D'HOTE DINNER EVERY SUNDAY, 1 to 4, 75c.

Fairview Park

Concerts by the

AMUSEMENTS.

Indianapolis Military Band Afternoon and Evening.

CINEMATOGRAPH Entertainments every evening, week commencing July 12.

Special Concerts Tuesday and Thursday

Evenings

FREE TO ALL

SUNDAY, JULY 12

YOUR SUMMER VACATION. If you take one you will want to keep in touch with home. The best way to do this is to have the Journal mailed to you. Leave your order before starting. We will change the address as often as you desire.

and squaws take their seats in a circle, dians come in. The bucks are arrayed in al the finery that civilization has left them. All the marriageable maidens enter the tent with coverings over their heads. These are gorgeously made, and rattle at every step with beads and the teeth of wild animals. "At the signal from an old Indian the younger ones begin to dance. It is an uncouth step, possessing no charm for the white man. With a peculiar rhythm of movement the young bucks hop about from maiden to maiden, lifting up their coverings and looking at the faces underneath. When knap for Governor at next Wednesday's at last the buck has found his lady love he narches on with her. Under the native cus toms the marriage is concluded when the > riage law. When the sacred dance is con cluded the couple set off for the neares town or church. Justices of the peace : Oacoma have been visited by as many a thirty couples at the same time, all demand ing immediate marriage. The Episcopal mis ever. The Indians are mystified and charmed by the elaborate ceremony of the Episcopa marriage, so they now look up these churches to finish the elaborate tribal cus tom of choosing wives and husbands. They want to be married by high church form. They think this more in keeping with their > in a dingy justice's office. "As many of the Indian marriages must e performed through interpreters, so the divorce proceedings are carried on largely through intermediaries. It is a novel sight to witness copper-hued Sioux Indians tribesmen with those who slew Custer's medern court."

Probably not, but all sorts of shifts have been practiced at all times to retain one There have always been men like Thoreau and St. Francis who believed that property have refused, as did the American philoso-St. Francis "cast aside every weight" that ie might free himself from "idle sorrow." He and his first disciples "loved nothing were secure in all places, troubled by n without trouble of mind, waiting without bers in his whimsical lightness of heart, of gayety. The founder of the Franciscan though we are told that he possessed what was quaintly called the gift of tears when never seen abroad without a smile, neither would be tolerate any appearance of heaviness in his followers. He rebuked a brother to whom a dejected manner had become habitual, saying: "My brother, repent thy sins in private and do not appear before the community thus downcast. We are inclined to think that those who make their living-provided it is a fairly good one-in the sweat of their face have lighter hearts than those who make it is the sweat of their brain. The high spirits which seem to be enjoyed by domestic servants-to judge by the sounds which come opstairs-are a case in point. Dusting scrubbing and plate-cleaning seem to weigh on the heart far less than doctoring, journalism or the study of law or theology

"But even the hot-blooded Sloux has been tamed to submission to the civilized marown ceremony than the few informal words army, sitting about a courtroom, and watching with solemn mien the red tape of a The Gift of a Light Heart. Is it possible to cultivate a light heart?

The Indian marriage of to-day is a curious ceremonies. Unwilling to give up their tradi-tional customs, the Indians are now using both tribal and civilized laws. The young buck chooses his squaw in the manner of the Sioux, then is married by a justice of the Sioux, or missionary clergyman.

The disappointment in the wild strucks to succeed which goes on among profes-sional people. Certainly in the literary world light hearts are generally lost early, yet the light-hearted man of letters, though "The dance at which the squaws are publicly chosen by eligible bucks has not lost its popularity. At sufficiently frequent inter-